

From: Michel Matte
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 7:59pm
Subject: DOJ/Microsoft Antitrust

As an independent developer I find it a pity that Microsoft should continue to prey on the industry with its abusive practices. The monopoly should have been broken up like Standard Oil. I agree that the government should play a role to prevent monopolies from taking hostages of smaller businesses and consumers. The government should encourage open source software such as the products distributed by Red Hat.

Michel Matte
Canada